

NOTICE

This Notice is served to comply with the Pre-Action Conduct guidelines required by the following commercial claim being levied in regard to the unauthorised and unlawful use of our assets used to create unlawful demands and fraud.

We wrote to you and Alistair Phillips Davies in regard to the Tort that the company SSE under the Chief Executive Orders of Alistair have caused against our Trust.

We outlined that the name and liabilities were sold to us and we stand surety for them and we also offered to discharge them on the production of a contract free of fraud.

You have refused our offer and continued to contact and utilise our asset in spite of our previous notices which have since resulted in an invoice and a Notice of Failure to Cure the Tort and settle the invoice within 30 days. 8 weeks have passed since the date on the returned recipe of the Notice and Invoice being served and we now require remedy.

We also offered a discount for an out of court settlement which has now expired in alignment without prejudice save as to costs" in an attempt to settle this matter. This leaves us no other option except to hereby notify you of pre court action for the continued use of our asset.

The relevant documents will be supplied and your email Simone included in them which clearly gives Notice that all parties are aware of the facts surrounding this mater and have entered commercial intercourse knowingly in accordance with Commercial Code.

No further Notice Given.
